

David Twigger
Creative Director/Founder

David Twigger is Creative Director and Founder of Vermilion Events and Design Group. This nationally recognized meeting and events firm is known for its prowess in combining logistics and creativity.

A native to Arizona David takes his over 30 years of hospitality, meetings and events experience and shares it with the world by planning everything from international conferences, incentive trips, galas and more.

A tireless supporter of the “little guy” David spends his time mentoring students, interns and new small business owners to help the next generation succeed. As a public speaker he is sought out for his energetic and “straight to the point” presentations.

You can also see David and his trendsetting ideas on his re-occurring design/style segment on the award-winning Arizona morning show, Sonoran Living.

When David finally takes a few moments off, he usually is working on his 1950’s home with his husband and loving cat Arby.
