

With a career spanning over 25 years in various media companies nationally and internationally, Mary Rábago has become a very well-known and respected public figure, a multi-award winning journalist. Born in Sonora, Mexico, Mary Rábago was the main news anchor of Univision Arizona as well as Univision California. Serving as correspondent for national shows such as “Noticiero Univision” and “Primer Impacto”. She is one of the “Top 10” Hispanic women with more media presence on both sides of the United States and Mexico border.

With a long list of regional and national awards for her career, she has displayed great versatility embracing every role from journalist, news anchor, reporter, producer and writer.

For the last 8 years Mary Rábago has taken on a new role, that of entrepreneur, opening “Mary Rabago Productions” a multimedia company that has already garnered national attention for their creative solutions. She has been recognized by Latina Style Magazine as Entrepreneur of the year, Cox Communication as entrepreneur of the year and Outstanding Women in Business by the Phoenix Business Journal in her short career as an entrepreneur.

In addition, she continues promoting family values, sharing her experience with “Sí se puede” (Yes you can) with families in Arizona providing support to those in need exhibiting a strong commitment with the Latino community in Arizona on important issues such as education, health, politics and finances on her social media platforms as an influencer, marketing opportunities and productions based on storytelling, Mary Rabago’s passion to tell stories and educate the community has set her aside from traditional journalism.